

Panels that light up outdoor spaces after sunset not only make a drab or plain wall look more attractive, but also add an additional source of light on the terrace or in the garden, creating a patterned atmosphere of light and shadows.

With user safety in mind, we use a low-voltage and energy saving LED light source with a white, slightly warm shade. All LED frames are resistant to water and weather conditions.

